Judgment

Koshy,J.

This writ petition of habeas corpus was filed to produce the body of Manju Joseph who was agreed to be married with the petitioner. According to the petitioner, she is under illegal custody and marriage was scheduled to be held on 30.11.2006. We have issued notice and on the basis of the notice, the alleged detenue was produced. She stated that she is not under illegal custody and even though there was betrothal and agreement for marriage, she later understood that petitioner was not suitable to her and, therefore, she is not willing to marry him. In any event, she is not under illegal custody. It is also stated that she is employed in U.K. and is capable of managing herself.

Counsel for the petitioner stated that they will not cause any physical threat to the detenue or relatives. That is also recorded.

In the above circumstances, the habeas corpus petition is dismissed.
